Did You Know?

In the Banda Sea, an unusual partnership has formed between black-banded sea kraits (snakes) and bluefin trevally fish. While hunting, the krait slither through tight spaces to flush out prey, while the trevally wait to chase and catch escaping fish. This teamwork highlights how two vastly different species can collaborate to achieve success that neither could accomplish alone.

Number Challenge

Fact: Female banded sea kraits grow to a length of around 128 cm.

Make (or get close to) a target number of 128 by using some (or all) of the following numbers:

----	----	----	---	---	---	---

Help: You could make 150 first and then subtract numbers to reach the target. Don't forget that you can add, subtract, multiply and divide numbers.
